A highly adaptable Full Stack Developer and AI Engineer with a robust background in digital media and brand strategy. Proven track record in designing scalable web architectures, integrating complex backend systems, and crafting responsive, high-performance user interfaces. Adept at leveraging both technical acumen and creative marketing experience to drive user engagement and deliver impactful digital products.

EXPERIENCE

2016 - Present

Orchard Beach Community Group

Software Developer

Spearheaded the end-to-end development of a comprehensive community portal. Engineered a robust, scalable backend architecture using MongoDB to handle complex data relationships and real-time synchronisation.

Architected a secure automated billing system and an intuitive administrative dashboard, driving significant operational efficiency. Developed a custom CRM solution tailored to unique member management workflows, ultimately improving community engagement and data organization.

2019 - 2021

The Evil Burrito

Javascript Developer

Conceptualized, designed, and deployed a highly performant and visually striking responsive website that elevated the brand's digital presence and user experience.

Devised and executed data-driven marketing strategies to increase customer acquisition. Produced compelling digital and physical marketing collateral, and led innovative guerilla marketing campaigns that successfully amplified brand awareness in key target demographics.

2008 - 2012

Pirate's Booty

Area Brand Manager

Directed regional brand strategy and experiential marketing initiatives. Cultivated B2B relationships and negotiated high-visibility retail placements. Designed and implemented custom in-store displays to maximize product visibility and drive point-of-sale conversions, significantly expanding market share within the territory.

2008 - 2012

Encore Nationwide

Brand Ambassador, Team Lead

Led cross-functional promotional teams in executing high-impact experiential marketing events. Managed on-site operations, trained personnel on brand messaging, and ensured seamless consumer interactions to elevate brand affinity and drive targeted engagement metrics.

2008 - 2012

Level 1 Promotion

Brand Ambassador

Acted as a dynamic frontline representative for diverse client portfolios. Executed grassroots marketing campaigns, facilitated direct consumer engagement, and gathered actionable field data to refine future marketing strategies and optimize event ROI.
